

bio.
Blumberg - 13-4-7

Dr. Betty Foster Will Wed Benjamin Blumberg

REFERENCE
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Announcement was made Monday of the engagement of Dr. Betty Foster, associate professor of art at Indiana State University, to Benjamin Blumberg, president of the Blumberg Realty Co.

Dr. Foster, who resides at 527 Deming St., received Bachelor of Science, Master of Science and Doctor of Education degrees from Indiana University. She has studied art at John Herron Art Institute, the Chicago Art Institute and at Cambridge, England. She was a student of Faber Birren of New York, well known color psychologist, and has been an art critic for the Indianapolis News.

Mr. Blumberg was graduated from De Pauw University in 1910 and the University of Chicago Law School in 1913. He practices law here before entering the business field, and has been active in civic and philanthropic affairs of the city for many years.

The wedding date has not been set. Rabi Bernard Cohen will perform the ceremony.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blumberg were married at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mr. Blumberg, 4003 Hulman St. Mrs. Blumberg was before her marriage Dr. Betty Foster, 526 Deming St. A reception followed the ceremony. The couple will go on the Indiana State University World Tour next summer following brief stops to visit relatives and friends on the east and west coasts. They will live at 4003 Hulman St. (Photo by Martin)

Dr. Betty Foster Weds Benjamin Blumberg

114. Biography
T.H. Star 11/6/65

In the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends, Dr. Betty Foster, 526 Deming St., and Benjamin Blumberg, 4003 Hulman St., were married at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Blumberg home.

The bride is associate professor of art at Indiana State University and the bridegroom, president of the Blumberg Realty Company, is well known throughout the state as a civic leader and philanthropist.

Rabbi Bernard M. Cohen of the United Hebrew Congregation officiated, and music was furnished by Dr. Roslyn Rensch, harpist at Indiana State University. The ceremony took place beneath a bower or chupah of huckleberry and smilax against a background of magnolia foliage, before the fireplace. On each side were arrangements of white chrysanthemums.

+ + +

Boxwood topiary trees decorated the entrance to the house.

Attending the bride was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Deryl Foster, Columbus. Morris B. Blumberg was his father's attendant.

A suit of heavenly blue brocade with matching blouse was worn by the bride. She wore a matching hat of veiling and matching shoes, and carried a white orchid on a white testament.

Her attendant was dressed in English cream wool with hat of brown net and brown alligator accessories. Her corsage was of brown cymbidium orchids.

A reception followed at the

FRANCES E. HUGHES,
Society Editor

Blumberg home. The serving table was decorated with lighted white tapers in silver candelabra and an arrangement of white daisies and smilax. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the table.

+ + +

The couple left for Indianapolis following the ceremony. The bride's going-away outfit was a light beige knit suit trimmed in gold beading and cut work, worn with a Parisian hat of vicuna brown and autumn haze mink stole.

Mr. and Mrs. Blumberg will go on the Indiana State University World Tour next summer following brief trips to visit relatives and friends on the east and west coasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Blumberg, 4005 Hulman St., entertained with a family dinner party Thursday evening at their home in honor of the couple.

Mrs. Blumberg received Bachelor of Science, Master of Science and Doctor of Education degrees from Indiana University. She also studied at John Herron Art Institute, Chicago Art Institute and at Cambridge, England, and was a student of Faber Birren of New York, color psychologist. She has been an art critic for the Indianapolis News.

+ + +

She is past president of Wabash Valley Lecture Club, Terre Haute Business and Professional Women's Club and art section of Indiana State Teachers Association, and a board member of the Lecture Club and American Red Cross.

Her memberships also include National Arts Club of New York City, Indiana Artists Club, American Pen Women, Chi Omega Sorority and Alpha Psi Omega Sorority. She has traveled in 47 countries, and was a delegate from the National Education Association to UNESCO meeting at The Hague, as well as to six international congresses of Business and Professional Women's Club at Paris, Oslo, Stockholm and London.

She has won the William Louis Schwitzer and J. I. Holcomb prizes in painting, and is best known for her work in calligraphy, which has been exhibited in three one-man shows and at Buckingham Palace.

+ + +

Mr. Blumberg is an honorary member of the boards of Indiana State University Foundation, United Hebrew Congregation, Vigo County Fair Association, Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce, Boys' Club, Boy Scouts, and past chairman of American Red Cross.

He also is on the boards of Blue Cross and Junior Achievements. His memberships include Phoenix Country Club, Rotary Club, Wabash Valley Pilots' Association and Civil Air Patrol.

Blumberg, Benjamin